

HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE JOURNAL OF BONE AND JOINT SURGERY

Rosemont, IL—The American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons brings you the latest news and information from The Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery. Here are some terrific story ideas and topics for your readers and viewers.

Learn:

- Why women who need new knees put off having surgery.
- How people who suffer with Diabetes can prevent foot ulcers, injury and infection.
- Why some people are just built to develop tennis elbow.
- Why hip patients recover better when given good information before and after surgery.

If you would like more information or to schedule an interview on these topics please call or email Catherine Dolf, 847-384-3034, dolf@aaos.org or Lauren Pearson, 847-384-4031, lpearson@aaos.org

Look for more cutting edge topics in coming months.

The Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery... We have you covered from head to toe.