

FoodEssentials Founder Bios

Anton Xavier founded FoodEssentials with the assistance of his father and two brothers. Originally from Hong Kong, with a background in marketing and management, Anton provides leadership, vision and big picture strategy. When combined with the technical expertise and execution of CIO Dheeraj Patri, the result is a productive and exciting partnership.

Dheeraj Patri CIO and co - founder

With a strong business and technical background and over 12 years management consulting for Fortune 500 companies, Dheeraj brings hands on expertise in the analysis, design and implementation of web-based business processes and technology solutions. A serial entrepreneur with several startup technology and consulting companies under his belt, Dheeraj provides technical leadership to FoodEssentials.