

About ACMA

Founded in 1999, the American Case Management Association (ACMA) is a national, non-profit, professional membership association, which supports the profession of Case Management in the hospital or health system setting. ACMA members are nurses, social workers, physicians, educators, administrators, and other professionals responsible for providing Case Management services in hospitals.

ACMA's membership currently consists of 2,500 Case Management professionals in 50 states and five countries, and continues to grow rapidly. ACMA members represent 985 U.S. hospitals, nearly 40% of all U.S. hospitals**, including almost all of the country's largest and academic medical centers. In addition, about 75% of these members are leaders (i.e. Directors of Case Management) in their organizations. ACMA is the only professional membership organization specifically for hospital/health system Case Managers.

** Excludes hospitals with less than 99 staffed beds
