First Lady Motivates Parents, Child Advocates to Move Keynote address at National PTA Legislation Conference, March 10th

WASHINGTON, D.C. (March 12, 2010)—First Lady Michelle Obama spoke to National PTA® members during a special luncheon this week Wednesday at National PTA's Legislative Conference about her latest national campaign, "Let's Move"—a movement pertinent to the National PTA's efforts toward fighting childhood obesity and promoting healthy lifestyles. This multi-media release captures special moments of the event through video and photos.

About National PTA

National PTA® comprises millions of families, students, teachers, administrators, and business and community leaders devoted to the educational success of children and the promotion of parent involvement in schools. PTA is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit association that prides itself on being a powerful voice for all children, a relevant resource for families and communities, and a strong advocate for public education. Membership in PTA is open to anyone who wants to be involved and make a difference for the education, health, and welfare of children and youth.
